SHASHWAT &EVANA

MEANING OF SHASHWAT AND EVANA :

Shashwat: The term Shashwat is a combination of two Sanskrit words: "Shash" meaning "eternal" or "forever," and "wat" meaning "to exist" or "to be." So, "Shashwat" can be interpreted to mean "eternal existence" or "permanence. Where in the word Evana: The soft "e" sound evokes a sense of openness and receptivity, while the lingering "v" offers a hint of strength and resilience. The concluding "ana" lends a sense of continuity, suggesting a journey without end. With this significance of context, the selection of the fonts have

EVANA

BEEN DONE WHICH ARE FONT SERIF :

With a classical, slight curve and traditional appearance, this fonts have variation in strike width. This stroke thickness tends to be more uniform, giving the text a sturdy and balanced base look. So Serif fonts are often chosen for their readability and classic aesthetic.

SELECTION OF COLOR GOLD AND RED :

Color Gold has been historically associated with wealth, power, and Luxury. Its rarity and shimmering appearance have made it a symbol of prestige and opulence. Behind making logo in gold because its timeless allure which inspires the fashion, branding and designing. Same goes with the color Red, it is considered as the symbol of good fortune, wealth, prosperity and manifest abundance in both personal and professional endeavors.
